no foundation whatever for the report that an unofficial Member of Council, who so ably and dispassionately stated the public grievance against the present administration at the public meeting, had been called upon to resign; and we think that it is most unwise to give currency to such rumours in the present state of feeling amongst the Community.

A DARING attack appears to have taken place four or five days ago at Kowloon city. It is said that shortly after dark a body of about thirty robbers forced an entrance into a Pawbrook shop at Kowloon and tied up the assistants. Intelligence of the affair speedily reached the Colonel of the force, and he immediately sent his soldiers to the place, but the robbers dared not effect an entrance on learning from the remarks that if they did so, they (the robbers) would kill all the assistants in the shop. The soldiers, therefore, surrounded the shop the whole of the night, and a great portion of the following day. In the afternoon some of the shopmen called out that the robbers would not take anything away if the soldiers would retire and let the robbers get away free. This request was complied with by the soldiers, who retired to a spot where they expected the robbers to pass, and ten of these numbers were arrested in this way. Rather a Chinese method of doing business.

The performance of "Martha" by the Royal English Opera Company on Saturday was a very satisfactory one, despite the fact that one of the leading artists (Mr. Vernon) was again suffering from indisposition, and was consequently far from being in good voice. The opera is, in itself, one of the most pleasing ones the Company have yet placed on the stage here. Miss May being in her usual health and spirits, it is almost needless to say that the rôle of "Martha" received an excellent rendering at her hands with respect both to singing and acting. The part of "Nancy" was also exceedingly well sustained by Miss Stanley; indeed we think this promising young artist has not been more successful in any of her previous representations than she was as "Nancy" on Saturday night. "Plunkett" was played by Mr. Phillips, whose face is a new one on the stage. Possessing a fairly good voice, and evidently knowing something of musical matters, Mr. Phillips would unquestionably have met with much more success than he did had he been able to shake off the extreme nervousness from which he was suffering. His make-up might also have been improved, while if Mr. Vernon would kindly permit him to pursue the even tenor (baritone) of his way instead of leading him about the stage so much, we fancy Mr. Phillips' composure would be somewhat less disturbed. Excepting the effects of indisposition apparent in some of his upper notes, Mr. Vernon's representation of "Lyonel" left little or nothing to be desired, and as usual he managed to draw a lion's share of the applause. The other characters in the opera were fairly well sustained by the Misses Dräger, Mr. Rollings, and Mr. Prescott. On Thursday the Company re-produced the "Princess of Trebizonde."

We some few days ago suggested that the police should be given power to enter every suspected dwelling in and around the slums of Taipingshan, and enquire as to the business of the inmates, their length of residence, &c. Such a proceeding, however, is somewhat foreign to English notions of the castlelike nature of their dwellings. A better plan, and one we think at which no one but rogues could cavil, would be to require the master of every coo-ho-house to be required to furnish a list of the inmates to the police; that, as the case in brothels, the names, occupation, date of arrival and other particulars should be posted in a conspicuous place inside the house; and that the master be made responsible for the truthfulness of the particulars so set forth; while in case of any falsity being discovered of which it is clearly shown that he must have been cognizant, he be made liable to a fine. It might be made part of the duties of the Inspectors of Nuisances to examine these lists from time to time, and the police should be empowered to enter these houses at any hour of the day or night. The first place a thief or thieves make for, if possible, when pursued is a coo-ho-house, and it is almost impossible for the police to identify the man they are in search of when once he has got into the herd. A good idea, and we commend it to humanitarians as worthy their attention, would be to build a number of model coo-ho-houses, well-built and well-ventilated, and place them in charge of trustworthy men; such measures as these would tend to drive all the rascals of the lower order into a corner, and they would soon begin to find the place a little too warm for them.

Mr Kwok Ah-sung's son has been released from the clutches of the law (as we presume it is called) at Canton. The unfortunate man chiefly owes his freedom to the lively interest taken in him by H. B. the Governor, who, when he found that H.M.'s Consul's representations at Canton had been insufficient to move the Chinese Authorities with the desired celerity, wrote himself to the Viceroy in very strong terms. The result of this step was that orders were at once sent to Nankai, where the unfortunate heir of the Ah-sungs was then located, for his immediate release, and he was sent to Canton in charge of one of the Viceroy's underlings, and then delivered over to H.M.'s Consul. The Ah-sung family have been mulcted of about $700 or $800 dollars, owing to the enforced residence of one of their number amongst the Cantonese officials. He was first, it appears, taken to the Sam Shui Custom House, where he remained 6 days, and made the acquaintance of Messrs Wang Man-chu 王萬朝, Neo Sik-yuen 李錫元 and Chun Toong-hoi 陳東海. These gentlemen asked the modest sum of Tls. 500 to let him go, but the offer was declined. He remained 6 days with these worthies, and was next sent on a trip to Hoi-kwan, where he sojourned 13 days; his next view of official life was at Nankai where he made a stay of 6 days; he then went back to Hoi-kwan, for a 3 days' stay, which was rendered all the more unpleasant owing to his being supplied with a bracelet and ankle ring. There was however no rest for this hopeful branch of the Ah-sung family, as he was again hurried off to Nankai and stayed there for 24 days, but not in the same house as before. Each move cost the family treasury a sum of money, as he had to pay for his enforced lodgings, and there being no scale of charges the officials fixed it at as high a sum as they thought their guest could be induced to fork out. He continually told he had broken the Custom's law and would be heavily fined, sums of Tls. 10,000 and Tls. 20,000 being frequently mentioned as something near the figure he might expect to be required to pay.

INQUESTS.
Two inquests were held this afternoon at the Government Civil Hospital, before C. V. O'neagh, Esq., Coroner, and a Jury, comprising Messrs O. E. Page, W. H. Percival, and J. A. Barretto.
The first was on the body of one Wong Ah-sing, who died from the effects of poison, which there is reason to suppose was self-administered. The enquiry was adjourned until the 21st inst. at 3 o'clock. The other case was that of a coolie named Ho Atun, who it appears was drowned by falling from a stage whilst carrying some pig lead on board the s.s. Namoa. It would appear that deceased with about 6 or 8 coolies was on the stage leading from the wharf to the steamer when the forward mooring chain carried away, and the steamer springing off from the wharf the stage or platform on which the deceased and others was at the time fell into the water. Life buoys and ropes were at once thrown to the men, and all but deceased were rescued. The Jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(London & China Express, Sept. 8.)
Two companies of the 3rd Regiment d'infanterie will be despatched from Rouen on the 20th inst. for Saigon, in order to replace the troops which were sent from thence to assist in the repression of the Insurrection in New Calcedonia.

The gunboats Falcon and Foehow, the former on service in the Sea of Marmora, and the latter in the Mediterranean, will proceed very shortly to the China station.

Colonel Frahmewald, the distinguished traveller, is preparing at Tashkent for a new journey of exploration to the western and Central parts of China. His objects, although partly scientific, are chiefly of a political nature. Advice from St. Petersburg point to the probability of war between Russia and China, which is considered inevitable since the Chinese reconquered Kashgar, and are raising demands for a recognition of Kuldah.

Sir Etienne Robinson, G.C.M.G., has accepted a twelve months' extension of his appointment as Governor of New South Wales.

The Whitehall Review says:—Although there are already six Chinese officers serving in ships of the Royal Navy, the Government of that country is anxious that the same facilities for acquiring a knowledge of the routine of a British man-of-war shall be granted to a further number. The Admiralty has expressed its willingness to find room for some more junior officers of the Chinese Navy, and we hear that three will at once be attached to the Mediterranean fleet. Four Chinese sub-lieutenants have been on board ships in the Dardanelles and at Cyprus during the late exciting times.

Hamburg, Sept. 3.—In my last letter I reported that the negotiations with China regarding the abolition of the lekin taxes had been broken off in consequence of the non-fulfilment of the promises originally given to Herr von Brandt, and that a circular had been sent by Germany to all the other European Powers inviting united action in the matter. Advice which I have since received from Berlin enable me to add that not only is the abolition of the lekin taxes to be demanded from China by our Government, but also a complete revision of the treaty of 1861.

Police Intelligence.
(Both Magistrates Sitting.)
14th Oct., 1878.
SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST A SHIP STEWARD.
J. H. Dixon, a steward unemployed, was charged with stealing 4 bottles of gin on board the British ship City of Manchester on the 28th ultimo, being drunk on same day, stealing two chronometers, one binocular glass, one barometer valued at $6, three receipts for $7 10s., $12, and $25 respectively; willfully damaging a letter book; unlawful possession of one coat, one watch; and willfully damaging 24 preserve-meat tins.

Captain Deane, Superintendent of Police, appeared to prosecute. The defendant was sent here from Manila by H. M.'s Consul at that port, charged with stealing the articles enumerated above on or about 26th September 1878. The depositions taken before the Consul at Manila were produced by Captain Deane, and the defendant, when asked if he wished to ask any questions, said, he was not guilty and that it was all a false statement made by the carpenter of the ship.
Mr O'neagh remanded the case until Wednesday next, the 16th instant.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the "CHINA MAIL."
Hongkong, Oct. 14, 1878.
Sir,—I have just obtained a glance of the pamphlet "The Wu-shih-shan Affair Impartially Considered," which you noticed in your Saturday's issue, and I find that its authenticity and the assertions it contains are placed almost beyond dispute by one great fact. Three of the leading figures in that brochure are—Thomas C. Hayilar, Ng Ahoy, and J. J. Francis. What more need be said? The Church Missionary Society and the foreign community of Foochow on one side (vide Mr MacClymont's speech at the public meeting), and three barristers on the other!

Yours,
COINCIDENCE.

AUDI ALTERAM PARTEM.
To the Editor of the "CHINA MAIL."
Ch. Mission House, West Point,
Hongkong, Oct. 12, 1878.

Sir,—I trust that in the spirit of candour and fairness, which has ever characterized the China Mail, you will permit me to make a few remarks on your leading article of the 12th inst., in reference to a pamphlet on the subject of the recent outrage upon the mission premises of the Church Missionary Society at Foochow. That article, as it stands is calculated unfairly to prejudice the minds of the community in regard to the whole question, notwithstanding that you point out the manifest one-sidedness of the source from which it is drawn. In the first place, it leaves out of sight the fact that the property in question has been in the occupation of the mission since 1855—a portion, in fact, from the year 1850—and that the lease, or agreement entered into by Mr Wolfe in 1867 was for the very purpose of enabling him to build dwellings in European style, suitable for the residence of the missionaries of the Society, and other buildings, schools, &c., as required for the carrying on of the mission. You state that the pulling down of the wretched hovels termed houses was without permission, a point which, in the quotation you make from his "opinion," Mr Halliday specially reserves as not stated in the information supplied to him. I have every reason to believe it will be found that Mr Wolfe had the required permission; certainly the fact that the houses have stood for years in the midst of a population assumed to be hostile to their presence goes far to prove it. I merely ask that judgment be suspended until Mr Wolfe's statement is before the public. If Mr Wolfe had the required permission, and there is nothing yet to show that he had not, all the pretty picture of Bomish priests upsetting an English village vanishes in its own poetry. The liberality of the offer of the Telegraph property at Nankai in exchange, to a mission established for 23 years, in the midst of a city, between which and the proposed new site intervene some three or four miles of narrow, crowded streets, is equivalent to saying "Give up your present successful work and begin again." It is much as if the authorities and populace of Canton, objecting as they do to the presence of the Roman Catholic Cathedral there, were to offer liberally a site on the Honam side, to the West of Shamien, and propose the removal of the whole establishment thither. Under the circumstances your readers will not be surprised to learn that our missionaries never for a moment entertained the idea of acceding to such a proposal; it was declined firmly from the very first. No other answer could have been expected from England for the reason that the Committee of the Society had firmly but courteously declined to accede to any such arrangement, when proposed to them personally by Sir Thomas Wade, as far back as the end of last year. At that time Sir Thomas Wade expressed his determination to move the Home Government to procure the expulsion of English missionaries from all cities in China, and made the important declaration at the same time that "in the case of merchants he would recommend a very different policy." In this he was warmly supported by the present Consul at Foochow. These are facts which have a material and important bearing on the late outbreak. How far the knowledge of the feelings of English officials on the subject has contributed to encourage the authorities at Foochow to countenance and abet these acts of enmity against our Mission remains to be seen. It is significant that no such proceedings dare be taken against American missions. I have been further informed that the new school which has been destroyed most wantonly was built by express permission given by H.B.M.'s Consul to the Rev. Mr Stewart during Mr Wolfe's absence.

So much for the fact of the case, which to my mind transfers the responsibility to other shoulders than Mr Wolfe's. As to the value of Counsel's opinion, that may be right or wrong on the simple question of a lease; but in a case of this sort it is evident that mere equity demands that all the circumstances of the making of such an agreement be before any one, whose opinion is to have any value in the matter. To apply English law with all its intricacies and subtleties, and base its application upon a simple agreement drawn up without the advantage of legal assistance, is simply to re-enact the force of the wolf and the lamb. It will be found to be the fact that, as there were technical difficulties in the way of actually selling the ground, this lease in perpetuity was devised as the nearest equivalent. Does any one suppose that the Society would have expended several thousand dollars in building upon a site which was held upon a yearly tenancy and from which they might be ousted at any moment? The supposition is incredible.

And as to your remark about missionaries not committing acts which are technically illegal according "to the Rules of Equity, the Statute Law or other Law for the time being in force in and for England," it is as supremely absurd that I could not tell it unjust. Missionaries are sometimes gravely told that they ought to be both thorough medical men and trained schoolmasters as well as theologians, but to insist upon our being well up with all the intricacies of English Law is addition, is simply to demand that we be gifted with superhuman intellects and memories. No Sir, it is unjust to Mr Wolfe, whom I have known for many years, to charge him with wilful acts of chicanery, breaches of faith or desire to take undue advantage of the Chinese. I know him to be especially careful in all that relates to the acquisition of land in this Empire; and with all deference to the two learned Counsel who have given their opinions on the case, I am bold to say that his long experience of 17 years' gradual acquisition of land for the native church, in different parts of the province has given him a far more accurate knowledge of Chinese law and custom on the subject than either of them can possibly have acquired in this island. Should I be favoured with a copy of the pamphlet in question I may have again to thank you for kindness, as I doubt not from the sample you have given there must be many inaccuracies in its pages. Meanwhile asking the public to suspend judgment until the other side is before them, I remain, Yours &c.,

A. B. HUTCHINSON,

ARRIVAL OF THE FRENCH MAIL.

The M. M. Co's. steamer Argo, Captain Hernandez, from Marseilles, with the London mail of the 7th September, arrived here at mid-day.

TELEGRAMS.

(From Indian Papers.)
London, Sept. 20.—Sir Michael Hicks Beach, Chief Secretary for Ireland, speaking at York, deprecated the aspirations of Greece to an extension of frontier, and said that Europe would scarcely tolerate the revival of the Eastern Question through the inordinate ambition of Greece.

News has been received that Khudojar, ex-Khan of Khokand, has fled to Cabul. Vienna, Sept. 19.—The Bosnian insurgents at Bihac have surrendered to the Austrians unconditionally. Simla, Sept. 20.—The Viceroy opened the Fine Arts Exhibition to-day. The Assembly Rooms, where the Exhibition is held, were crowded. After an excellent address from the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, the Viceroy gave a humorous and eloquent speech of thirty minutes, and declared the Exhibition open. The Assembly then adjourned for an inspection of the room recently erected for the purpose. The pictures are pronounced to be above the previous average.

The Morning Advertiser states that the Russian Government has abandoned the project of establishing a Russian diplomatic agent at Cabul.

The transfer of the 101st regiment to the Straits Settlements is cancelled in consequence of the large amount of sickness in Cyprus among the troops.

Vienna, Sept. 20.—An Austrian official despatch announces that the province of Herzegovina is completely pacified.

London, Sept. 23.—An official despatch states that a second outbreak of fever has taken place among the British troops in Cyprus, and that 400 have been invalided.

The Daily News states that the Nihilist party in Russia is rapidly growing, and that a plot has been discovered to release all the prisoners in Odessa. The Cossacks have been reinforced, and the Police in St. Petersburg patrol the city.

Constantinople, Sept. 21.—The Russian Ambassador here has submitted to the Porte a new Treaty embodying those points which were not decided at San Stefano and Berlin, including the question of the indemnity. The Russians have evacuated San Stefano.

Vienna, Sept. 21.—The Bosnian insurgent forces are concentrated and strongly entrenched at Tuzla and Zornik.

London, Sept. 23.—The Times considers the refusal of the Amer to receive a British mission an affront involving the gravest consequences, and says the question is now becoming an Imperial one.

Constantinople, Sept. 22.—The envoy from the Amer, who arrived here last week, is seeking to induce the Ottoman Government to conclude an alliance with Russia. Negotiations are now proceeding between Russia and Turkey for a definitive treaty of peace confirming the indemnity and regulating the commercial relations between the two countries.

London, Sept. 23.—Anxiety is felt in high quarters lest the Viceroy of India should have recourse to diplomatic action, whereas it is felt that the occasion demands prompt military operations, because the insult offered by the Amer to England before the whole of India, unless promptly avenged, may have disastrous results. It is considered not to be a matter for negotiations with Russia, but for action on the Indian Government's own responsibility.

London, Sept. 23.—Lord Carnarvon, speaking at Tereval, said that if England was jealous of Russian intrigues and influence in Afghanistan, it would be better to meet Russia in fair fight in Europe than entangle ourselves in an Afghan war. The Daily News takes the same view of the matter.

London, Sept. 24.—The London papers generally agree that the action of the Amer demands prompt punishment, without, however, dragging Russia into the matter. The Times deprecates any hasty opinion, and says the Amer must be first called upon to explain his conduct and apologise. An immediate Cabinet Council to discuss the matter is expected. The stock markets yesterday were depressed owing to political uneasiness, and Consols fell to 95. It has been decided that decorations be given for the Jowaki campaign. The Russians have evacuated and the Turks occupied San Stefano.

London, Sept. 24.—The charge of the Russians being guilty of complicity with the Amer is officially denied at Saint Petersburg.

London, Sept. 25.—No Cabinet Council will be held respecting the Amer's refusal to receive the mission, but the Indian Government will be left unhampered to pursue its own initiative in the matter. The latest accounts state that the fever in Cyprus is decreasing. Consols yesterday closed at 94½, being a further fall of ½.

Vienna, Sept. 24.—The resistance of the Bosnians at Tuzla and Bihac has collapsed, and the insurgents have surrendered unconditionally at those places.

Toronto, Sept. 25.—The London papers are in favour of a prompt march on Cabul, and consider that a military demonstration is inadequate.

Lord Cairns, Lord High Chancellor, has been raised to an earldom.

The latest advice state that Mount Vesuvius is now in full eruption.

The British ironclad squadron will only withdraw to Artaki in the Sea of Marmora until the Russians have left Adrianople.

Vienna, Sept. 25.—The Austrians have occupied Mornik without opposition, and Bosnia is now considered to be virtually pacified.

London, Sept. 27.—A Cabinet Council has been summoned for next week. Lord Beaconsfield is in an unsatisfactory state of health. The Morning Post advocates the employment of Scindia's army to garrison the frontier of the North-West Provinces. The St. Petersburg papers, in discussing the relations between England and Afghanistan, rejoice at our difficulties and hope that they will elude English's intervention in the carrying out of the Berlin Treaty. The Continental press generally apprehend a rupture in the relations between England and Russia. The Journal des Debats regards war between England and Afghanistan as inevitable, and hopes that Russia will observe a neutral attitude.

China.

SHANGHAI.
(News.)

The British ship Sumatra Captain Tribe, arrived at Woosung on Sunday, from Nagasaki. In getting underway, in that port, we hear she collided with the Vale of Nith. Both vessels sustained damage, but not to such an extent as to necessitate their detention, and the Vale of Nith followed the Sumatra across, arriving at Woosung yesterday (Oct. 7th).

The Costa Rica barque Martha has lately been undergoing extensive repairs at the Tung-ka-doo dock. She has been supplied with a new keel, stern, stern-post, upper deck and houses, and whenever anything has been defective it has been replaced by new material; in fact she has been thoroughly overhauled from keel to truck.

Shortly before eight o'clock on Sunday evening the watchman on board the British ship Silver Eagle, which was moored at the Hongkong Wharf, heard a man coming up the gangway, and when he got nearly to the top he fell between the ship and the wharf into the river. Every endeavour was made by several of the crew to rescue him, but nothing more was seen or heard of him. The cook of the vessel has since been missing, and it is supposed that it is he who has met so untimely an end. His name was W. H. Smith.

Yesterday (Oct. 7th) an accident, resulting in the loss of five lives, occurred on the river Hwangpoo. Shortly before six o'clock in the morning ten carpenters, or caulkers, started from the Old Dock in a sampan to work to Tung-ka-doo, where they were to go during the day. They were making the passage under sail, and all went well until they were about one hundred yards from their destination, when a squall struck the sail and capsized the sampan, its eleven occupants, the ten carpenters and the boatman, falling into the river. Five of them succeeded in reaching the bank, which was not many yards distant, and a sixth saved himself by scrambling under the inverted sampan. The remaining five were drowned. All the bodies shortly afterwards came to the surface, and were recovered from the water. None of the occurrences was then sent to the Old Dock, and Mr C. P. Blethen proceeded to Tung-ka-doo in a sampan launch. On his arrival he had the bodies placed on a large native boat, which he towed to Shanghai, where, on arrival, each body was handed over to the relatives or friends of the deceased, all of whom were Ningpo men.

The cross-actions, the German barque Emma v. the British barque Goolwa, and the Goolwa v. Emma, were again before H.M.'s Supreme Court yesterday, (Oct. 8th), when the legal gentlemen engaged summed up on behalf of their respective clients. His Lordship (R. A. Mowat, Esq.), and the Assessors, Captain Philip and Lowe, then retired to consider their decision, and on returning into Court his Lordship said in their opinion the case turned solely on the liability of the light carried by the Emma, and the efficiency of the look-out on the Goolwa. After consulting with the Assessors on these points, he had put to them the following questions:—1st, Was the Emma's light fairly visible? The Assessors answered No. 2nd, Did her default in this respect contribute to the collision? The Assessors answered Yes. 3rd, Had the Goolwa an efficient look-out? The Assessors answered No. 4th, Would an efficient look-out have enabled her to see the Emma in time to bear away and avoid the collision? The Assessors answered Yes. On these findings his Lordship pronounced both ships in fault, and said there would be the usual reference to the Registrar to assess the gross damage to the two ships, which would have to be borne equally between them. Each party would have to pay their own costs and one of the fees of the Assessors.

We hear from a private, but reliable source, that an American gentleman who some time since left Chinkiang for his home in the United States, has become so disgusted with the kind of domestic "helps" to be obtained in his present neighbourhood, that he has written to a friend in the above Outpost to send him, if possible, his former Chinese servants! The coveted domestics have been found, and are now in Shanghai awaiting passage by the Genkai Maru next week. Keen satire this, the attempt being made to stop Chinese emigration to the States.

NAGASAKI.

(Rising Sun and Nagasaki Express.)
Another step in the right direction has been taken in the establishment of Pillar letter-boxes throughout the Native town. This facility afforded by the Post-office cannot but be appreciated by all those who, living at a distance from Nagasaki, have occasion to write and post letters. These pillars are smaller than those in use in England and lack something of the substantiality which characterises the latter, but we hail their appearance as a further indication of the intention of the Department to leave nothing undone which will in any way advance its perfect working and usefulness.

REPORT AND ACCOUNTS OF THE CHINA MERCHANTS' S. N. CO.

(N. C. D. News.)

The following are the Report and Account, of the C.M.S.N. Co. from the seventh month of the 6th year of Kwang-si (9th August, 1877) to the end of the sixth month of the 6th year (26th July, 1878):—

It is now five years since the Directors had the honour to receive instructions from the Earl Li to undertake the management of the Company, and at the end of each year a Report and Accounts have been carefully drawn up in the hope that the Shareholders would thus be induced to make themselves acquainted therewith. This year, reckoning from the seventh month of last year, to the end of the sixth month of the present, the total earnings of the Company as freight have been over Tls. 2,300,000, and from this it would appear that the greatest exertions to attract business have been made, and also a large balance of profit secured. Still, after deducting the expenses, and allowing for dividend on shares, and interest on borrowed money, loss was unavoidable. Some persons, in order to throw doubt on the management of the Company, will say that it has not been of the most satisfactory nature, but we have been so hampered that our task has been a difficult one.

In the first place we made no agreement with foreign merchants regarding the Ningpo and Yangtze trades immediately after our balance last year. By the time an agreement was come to, the year was ended, so that during half of the year under review we suffered considerable losses. Then there have been sources of loss which our Shareholders are ignorant of. In the beginning of the ninth month of last year (October), we received commands to convey to Tientsin rice for the relief of Honan and Shanai. At that time, too, there was a rush on the part of our clients to ship all kinds of grain which had been subscribed by the public for the relief of the famine sufferers, and the Company's steamers were insufficient to meet the demand. To assist in the conveyance of the grain, foreign vessels had to be chartered, and the expense of hiring men was great. Besides, when the river was closed on the advance of the winter season, goods had to be landed at Taku, and the additional expenditures in cart and coolie hire necessitated by the transport to Tientsin was enormous. Nay more, in the item of Government grain-transport our supplementary allowance of rice, after measuring, was a small one, because the rice grains had been somewhat damped by the excessive rains. We had also to make money contributions out of our freight earnings to relief of distress in the three different provinces of Fokien, Shanai and Honan, and it is a principle of Natural Law that the more one pays to another the less one has one's self.

With regard to the insurance of our own ships by ourselves, it was agreed that, commencing from the first month of this year, there should be annually laid aside Tls. 150,000 from the Insurance Fund, to be used for the repayment of the advances of the public monies made to the Company. After writing off in full the value of the Hoo-yang, there remains of the insurance receipts for the year over Tls. 72,500, and this may stand for the Tls. 75,000, which ought to be laid aside for the first half-year under the above arrangement, as the difference between the two sums is but trifling. To provide funds for writing off the Kyung-chang, some other plan must be adopted. Of the five per cent. of the gross earnings devoted year after year, to the expenses of the Head-Office and the Branch Offices, the surplus remaining after defraying all expenses, has now been passed into the General Account.

In accordance with the official memorial, a dividend of 5 per cent. will be paid to the Shareholders. The remaining 5 per cent will be retained, and Shareholders invited to take additional stock for it. The accounts have been made up as before and submitted, according to law, to the Ministers Superintendent of Trade, and distributed to the branch offices at Tientsin, Hongkong, Foochow, Canton and Hankow. We beg the Shareholders in the vicinity of each of these places to inspect them, so that they may have a thorough insight into the company's affairs.

Respectfully drawn up by the China Merchants' Company.
